SUBJECT OF ORDER: Change of November 5, 1999, motion day.

ORDER: After examination of the files, the court finds, determines, and orders:

1. The requirement that the judge attend and participate in a three-judge sentencing panel in two murder cases in Douglas County, which have been scheduled for pronouncement of sentence on the same date requires that the November 5, 1999, motion day be rescheduled to November 8, 1999.

2. The court clerk shall file a photocopy of this order in each case file for which any motion or hearing had previously been scheduled for November 5, 1999, and shall mail a copy to all parties (or their attorneys of record) in each such case. By this order, such matters shall be deemed as continued to such date at the same time as previously scheduled for the original date.

3. The court clerk shall not allow any further matters to be scheduled or noticed for November 5, 1999, and shall notify any party or attorney attempting to schedule any such hearing of this order.

4. The court clerk shall distribute a copy of this order to all attorneys having their principal office in Cherry County.
