DATE OF HEARING: No hearing held.

APPEARANCES:

For plaintiff(s): None.

For defendant(s): None.

SUBJECT OF HEARING: Stipulation for continuance.

ORDER: IT IS ORDERED that:

1. Counsel are cautioned that continuance of the deadlines established in the pretrial order is not a matter of right. Counsel are further cautioned that it is not appropriate to file such a stipulation without notice of hearing, or in the alternative calling the matter to the judge's attention or requesting the clerk to call the matter to the judge's attention. Counsel are cautioned that any stipulation filed without notice of hearing or otherwise obtaining the court's approval may be disregarded.

2. Counsel are further cautioned that no further extensions of the deadlines established will be granted, whether or not upon stipulation, except upon showing of good cause which could not have been anticipated.

3. The stipulation is approved, and the pretrial order is modified as provided below.

4. The plaintiff's brief date is extended to January 2, 2001. The defendant's brief date is extended to February 1, 2001. The plaintiff's reply brief, if any, shall be submitted by February 12, 2001. The written stipulation of facts shall be filed with the clerk (and copy submitted to judge as required by the pretrial order) on February 13, 2001. The matter shall be deemed as submitted upon the filing of the written stipulation of facts on February 13, 2001. The stipulation shall contain a written certification that a copy of the stipulation has been submitted to the trial judge. Any stipulation filed before February 13, 2001, shall, for purposes of determining submission of the cause, be deemed to have been filed and submitted on February 13, 2001.
