G. EXTENSION OF DISCOVERY TIME: The times for discovery may be extended by the stipulation of the parties, without permission of the court, if the extension will not delay any trial or the progression of the case toward trial, and the time for discovery will be extended by the court only after motion and hearing, upon the showing of good cause.

11. WITNESSES:

A. AUTOMATIC DISCLOSURES: Within ^ days from the date of this progression conference, each party shall, without request, serve upon the other party identification by name and address of all persons likely to have information which bears significantly on the issues in the case, to the extent not previously provided through discovery.

B. FINAL LIST FILED: On or before ^, each party shall file with the Court clerk, and serve on the other party, a list of witnesses showing specific name, address, and telephone number. Any witness listed thereon, but not previously disclosed by either party pursuant to paragraph A above, shall be further identified by a summary of the testimony of such additional witness. After that date, witnesses may be added to the witness list only with the permission of the court given after showing of good cause.

C. FINAL LIST PRODUCED: At the final pretrial conference, each party shall submit to the Court (not file with the court clerk), and serve on the other party, a list of witnesses showing specific name, address, and telephone number. Any witness listed thereon, but not previously disclosed by either party pursuant to paragraph A above, shall be further identified by a summary of the testimony of such additional witness. After that date, witnesses may be added to the witness list only with the permission of the court given after showing of good cause.

D. ADDITIONAL WITNESSES: Except rebuttal witnesses not now known, neither party may call as a witness at trial any person that is not on either of the final witness lists (without regard to the identity of the party submitting the list).

12. WITNESSES:

A. ATTACHED LISTS: Witnesses for each party are named on the respective list of the parties attached hereto and marked as follows:

(1) For the petitioner: Schedule ^.

(2) For the respondent: Schedule ^.

- B. ADDITIONAL WITNESSES: Except rebuttal witnesses not now known, neither party may call as a witness at trial any person that is not on any one or more of the witness lists (without regard to the identity of the party submitting the list).
- C. SUPPLEMENTING LISTS: Any party may add additional witnesses to such party's witness list by filing with the court and mailing to the other counsel a list of the additional witnesses together with a summary of the testimony of each additional witness on or before ^. Thereafter, witnesses may be added to the witness list only with the permission of the court after showing of good cause.
- D. SUPPLEMENTING LISTS: Witnesses may be added to a witness list only with the permission of the court after showing of good cause.

13. EXHIBITS:

- A. AUTOMATIC DISCLOSURES: Within ^ days from the date of this progression conference, each party shall, without request, serve upon the other party a photocopy of, or a description by category and location of, all documents, data, compilations, and tangible things in the possession, custody, or control of the party that are likely to bear significantly on any issue in the case, to the extent not previously provided through discovery.
- B. FINAL LIST FILED: On or before ^, each party shall file with the Court clerk, and serve on the other party, a list of exhibits showing specific description thereof. Any exhibit listed thereon, but not previously disclosed by any party pursuant to paragraph A above, shall be further identified by furnishing a photocopy thereof to the other party unless photocopying the exhibit is impractical or unduly expensive. After that date, exhibits may be added to the exhibit list only with the permission of the court given after showing of good cause.
- C. FINAL LIST PRODUCED: At the final pretrial conference, each party shall submit to the Court (not file with the court clerk), and serve on the other party, a list of exhibits showing specific description thereof. Any exhibit listed thereon, but not previously disclosed by any party pursuant to paragraph A above, shall be further identified by furnishing a photocopy thereof to the other party unless photocopying the exhibit is impractical or unduly expensive. After that date, exhibits may be added to the exhibit list only with the permission of the court given after showing of good cause.

D. ADDITIONAL EXHIBITS: The parties are limited to the exhibits on either of the final exhibit lists (without regard to the identity of the party submitting the list).

E. NONDOCUMENTARY/OVERSIZE EXHIBITS: Pursuant to Supreme Court rule:

(1) The party offering any nondocumentary item of physical evidence shall provide a photograph, not exceeding 8½ by 11 inches and which fairly and accurately depicts the item, to the court reporter at the time the original exhibit is marked.

(2) The party offering any documentary item of evidence exceeding 8½ by 11 inches shall provide a reduced size photographic copy or photograph, not exceeding 8½ by 11 inches and which fairly and accurately depicts the item, to the court reporter at the time the original exhibit is marked.

(3) The court reporter shall refuse to mark and the Court may refuse to accept any such item submitted but not accompanied by such copy or photograph.

F. MARKING EXHIBITS: All exhibits shall be marked by the official court reporter (“reporter”). Counsel shall not pre-mark exhibits except after consultation with and obtaining approval of the reporter. Counsel shall appear at least 30 minutes prior to trial to present exhibits to the reporter for marking, unless counsel has made advance arrangements with the reporter for pre-marking of exhibits. If exhibits are too numerous to be marked within such 30 minute period, counsel shall make advance arrangements with the reporter for pre-marking of exhibits. Except for matters arising during trial which could not reasonably have been foreseen, all exhibits shall be marked prior to the commencement of trial.

14. EXHIBITS:

A. ATTACHED LISTS: Each party disclosed the exhibits they respectively intend to introduce, to be the following:

(1) For the petitioner: Schedule ^.

(2) For the respondent: Schedule ^.

B. ADDITIONAL EXHIBITS: The parties are limited to the exhibits on any one or more of the exhibit lists (without regard to the identity of the party submitting the list).

- C. SUPPLEMENTING LISTS: Exhibits may be added to the exhibit list only with the permission of the court given after showing of good cause.
 - D. SUPPLEMENTING LISTS: Any party may add exhibits to such party's list at any time on or before ^ by filing with the court, and mailing to the other counsel, a list and description of the additional exhibits, and mailing to the other counsel a photocopy of the exhibits unless photocopying the exhibit is impractical or unduly expensive. After that date, exhibits may be added to the exhibit list only with the permission of the court given after showing of good cause.
 - E. NONDOCUMENTARY/OVERSIZE EXHIBITS: Pursuant to Supreme Court rule:
 - (1) The party offering any nondocumentary item of physical evidence shall provide a photograph, not exceeding 8½ by 11 inches and which fairly and accurately depicts the item, to the court reporter at the time the original exhibit is marked.
 - (2) The party offering any documentary item of evidence exceeding 8½ by 11 inches shall provide a reduced size photographic copy or photograph, not exceeding 8½ by 11 inches and which fairly and accurately depicts the item, to the court reporter at the time the original exhibit is marked.
 - (3) The court reporter shall refuse to mark and the Court may refuse to accept any such item submitted but not accompanied by such copy or photograph.
 - F. MARKING EXHIBITS: All exhibits shall be marked by the official court reporter ("reporter"). Counsel shall not pre-mark exhibits except after consultation with and obtaining approval of the reporter. Counsel shall appear at least 30 minutes prior to trial to present exhibits to the reporter for marking, unless counsel has made advance arrangements with the reporter for pre-marking of exhibits. If exhibits are too numerous to be marked within such 30 minute period, counsel shall make advance arrangements with the reporter for pre-marking of exhibits. Except for matters arising during trial which could not reasonably have been foreseen, all exhibits shall be marked prior to the commencement of trial.
15. FOUNDATION: Specific objections to foundation for exhibits shall be filed by the parties on or before ^, or the foundational objection shall be considered waived at time of trial.

16. FOUNDATION: Specific objections to foundation for exhibits shall be raised by the parties at the pretrial conference, or the foundational objection shall be considered waived at time of trial. At the pretrial conference, exhibits will be classified into the following categories:
- A. Category “A” exhibits will be those for which the parties waive all objections and stipulate that the same may be admitted without objection upon offer by either party.
 - B. Category “B” exhibits will be those for which the parties waive foundation and stipulate that the same may be admitted without foundation, but reserve any other objection to them.
 - C. Category “C” exhibits will be those for which no objections are waived, and to which specific foundational objection(s) is/are asserted at the pretrial conference.
17. STIPULATIONS:
- A. The parties shall attempt to stipulate to all agreed facts in writing, which stipulation shall be filed with the Court on or before [^]. In the event that no facts can be stipulated to by the parties, the parties shall jointly report the same in writing to the Court on or before such date.
 - B. The parties shall attempt to stipulate to all agreed facts in writing, which stipulation shall be submitted to the Court (not filed with the court clerk) at the pretrial conference. In the event that no facts can be stipulated to by the parties, the parties shall each submit separate proposed stipulations to the Court at the pretrial conference.
 - C. During the telephone progression conference, with the approval of the court, the respective counsel for all of the parties stipulated on behalf of their respective clients as follows:
 - (1) The parties waive all objections on the listed exhibits identified by the letter “A” in the margin of the Schedules attached and stipulate that the same may be admitted without objection upon offer by either party.
 - (2) The parties waive foundation on the listed exhibits identified by the letter “B” in the margin of the Schedules attached and stipulate that the same may be admitted without foundation, but reserve any other objection to them.
 - (3) The parties reserve all objections on the listed exhibits identified by the letter “C” in the margin of the Schedules attached.

- (4) The parties waive all objections on the following listed exhibits and stipulate that the same may be admitted without objection upon offer by either party, to-wit: Schedule ^, items nos. ^; Schedule ^, items nos. ^.
- (5) The parties waive foundation on the following listed exhibits and stipulate that the same may be admitted without foundation, but reserve any other objection to them, to-wit: Schedule ^, items nos. ^; Schedule ^, items nos. ^.
- (6) ^.
- (7) ^.

18. TRIAL PROCEDURES: At the final pretrial conference, trial procedures will be considered. In addition to any other matters which may be raised by the parties or counsel, the court will consider procedures regarding:

- A. Requests for record of portion of trial for which no verbatim record is required by Supreme Court Rule 5A(1) of Practice and Procedure.
- B. Any requests for sequestration of witnesses.
- C. Procedures for use of any videotape depositions.
- D. Procedures for requesting permission to approach witnesses or the official court reporter.
- E. Use of formal titles to address counsel, parties, and witnesses.
- F. Prohibition against entering judge's chambers ex parte during trial.
- G. Itemizations of costs.

19. TRIAL PROCEDURES: After discussion between the court and counsel, it was determined that:

- A. RECORD REQUESTS: No "omnibus" request for verbatim record has been made pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 5A(2) of Practice and Procedure, and any trial proceeding for which a record is desired and not mandated by Supreme Court Rule 5A(1) of Practice and Procedure shall be specifically requested by counsel at the time of such proceeding.
- B. WITNESS SEQUESTRATION: Witness sequestration pursuant to Rule 615 is waived.
- C. WITNESS SEQUESTRATION: Pursuant to the request of a party under Rule 615, witnesses shall be excluded from the courtroom during the testimony of other witnesses so that excluded witnesses cannot hear the testimony of other witnesses. The parties and their respective attorneys are further prohibited from directly or indirectly communicating the content of a witness's trial testimony to any other witness.

- D. VIDEOTAPE DEPOSITIONS: Unless otherwise stated on the deposition record at the commencement of such deposition and which shall be called to the court's attention upon the offer thereof, any videotaped deposition:
 - (1) shall have the videotape marked as an exhibit by the official court reporter, and shall also have a written transcript thereof marked as a related exhibit, both of which exhibits shall be offered into evidence for purposes of the record only and shall not go to the jury; and,
 - (2) may be played to the jury without the concurrent taking down by the official court reporter of the played content thereof.
- E. PERMISSION TO APPROACH: Counsel may approach a witness without requesting advance permission from the court where it is obvious that the purpose of approaching relates to examination concerning an exhibit. Counsel may approach the official court reporter without requesting advance permission from the court where it is obvious that the purpose of approaching relates to the marking or retrieving of an exhibit.
- F. USE OF COURTESY TITLES: Counsel shall address parties, witnesses, and each other in a formal manner, with the appropriate title (Mr., Mrs., Ms., Dr., etc.).
- G. JUDGE'S CHAMBERS: During the trial, counsel shall not enter the judge's chambers unless accompanied by opposing counsel.
- H. ITEMIZATIONS OF COSTS: All itemizations of costs shall be submitted no later than the submission of the matter to the trier of fact at the conclusion of the trial.

20. ISSUES:

- A. PROPERTY/DEBTS: If division of property and/or debts is contested, the parties shall prepare and submit at the pretrial conference a Joint Property Statement.
 - (1) The statement shall be in the form set forth in "Attachment 1" to this order, which shall contain both parties' descriptions of all property in dispute, including, without limitation, each party's value thereof.
 - (2) The items of property described in the Joint Property Statement shall be

- B. ALIMONY: If alimony or spousal support is contested, each party shall prepare and submit at the pretrial conference a list of each factor the party maintains should be considered by the court in determining alimony, and with respect to each such factor, proposed specific findings of fact regarding the existence or nonexistence of such factor which the party expects to adduce in evidence at trial.
- C. CUSTODY: If child custody is in issue, each party shall prepare and submit at the pretrial conference a list of each factor the party maintains should be considered by the court in determining custody, and with respect to each such factor, proposed specific findings of fact regarding the existence or nonexistence of such factor which the party expects to adduce in evidence at trial.
- D. CHILD SUPPORT: If there are any minor children of the marriage, the parties shall prepare and submit at the pretrial conference detailed child support guideline calculations, including mathematical calculations used and the reasons for any proposed deviation from the guideline calculations, with 2 years' tax returns for each party and current payroll data. If the parties do not agree upon the calculations, each party shall submit separate calculations.
- E. SPECIFIC VISITATION: If specific child visitation conditions are requested by either party, each party shall prepare and submit at the pretrial conference any proposed deviations from the standard visitation schedule (Appendix "C") used in the Eighth Judicial District.
- F. OTHER REQUESTED RELIEF: If any other relief is requested by either party, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, costs, allocation of income tax child exemptions, child care expenses, health insurance, or allocation of unreimbursed health care expenses, each party shall prepare and submit at the pretrial conference a list of each factor the party maintains should be considered by the court in determining such item of relief, and with respect to each such factor, proposed specific findings of fact regarding the existence or nonexistence of such factor which the party expects to adduce in evidence at trial.

21. ISSUES: After discussion between the court and counsel, it was determined that the pleadings adequately state the issues to be tried.
22. ISSUES: Each party shall submit (not file) a list of disputed factual and legal issues at the pretrial conference. Such list shall be in the form of the legal elements of each claim or defense, and the contested factual issues as to each element of the claim or defense.
23. ISSUES:
 - A. IDENTIFIED ISSUES: After discussion between the court and counsel, the issues listed in Schedule(s) ^ attached were determined to be the legal and factual issues.
 - B. IDENTIFIED ISSUES: After discussion between the court and counsel, the following were ^tentatively determined to be the legal and factual issues:
 - (1) ^.
 - (2) ^.
 - C. ADDITIONAL ISSUES: The parties are allowed until ^ to add additional issues to the issue list by filing with the court, and mailing to the other parties, a list of any additional legal or factual issues that the party maintains exists.
 - D. ISSUES LIMITED: The issues for trial are limited to the issues identified above and, to that extent, supersede all of the pleadings identified above.
 - E. ISSUES SUPPLEMENTED: The issues for trial identified above shall supplement the pleadings identified above, but do not preclude any other issues properly raised by the pleadings.
24. PRETRIAL MOTIONS:
 - A. All pretrial motions, not otherwise provided for above, shall be filed on or before ^, and noticed for hearing prior to the date of the pretrial conference in compliance with Rule 8-3.
 - B. Briefs in support of pretrial motions shall be served and submitted as follows:
 - (1) Any moving party who desires to submit a brief in support of the motion shall serve the brief in support on opposing counsel at the time of filing and service of the motion. Failure to serve a brief in support with the motion shall be deemed as a waiver of the right to submit such brief.

- (2) If the nonmoving party desires to submit a brief in opposition to the motion, such brief shall be served on opposing counsel at or prior to the hearing on the motion. Unless the nonmoving party moves for continuance of the hearing with supporting affidavit(s), failure to serve a brief in opposition at or prior to date of hearing shall be deemed as a waiver of the right to submit such brief.
 - (3) Any reply brief in support of the motion shall be served within 5 days after the date of hearing on the motion, if specifically requested by either party and only if allowed by the court.
 - (4) Pursuant to Uniform District Court Rule 5B, all briefs shall be submitted to the trial judge and shall not be filed with the court clerk. The preferences for delivery set forth below for trial briefs shall apply here, except that initial briefs in support and briefs in opposition need not be actually delivered to the judge until the date of hearing on the motion.
- C. The parties are cautioned that the court, on its own motion, may consider the pendency of a nonfrivolous pretrial motion as a sufficient ground for continuance of the pretrial conference until the motion has been decided.
25. PRETRIAL MOTIONS: Neither party desires to file any additional pretrial motions and none shall be hereafter filed or considered except upon showing of good cause.
 26. TRIAL BRIEFS: All trial briefs shall be submitted in sufficient time that the same shall be received by the Judge at least 10 days prior to trial. All briefs shall be submitted to the Judge, not filed with the clerk (see Uniform District Court Rule 5B). Copies shall be served on opposing counsel.
 27. DELIVERY PREFERENCES: The court's preferences for delivery are:
